Addition of AIR and PDCIR Guidance for Agency Products

Truist Bank (Truist) is taking the opportunity to update collateral PPM standards for Agency products with Appraiser Independence Requirements (AIR) and Property Data Collector Independence Requirements (PDCIR).

Effective Dates

Effective immediately for all new and existing locks as of December 19, 2025.

Background Information

Truist continues to seek opportunities to improve client experience in doing business with Truist. A review of the Correspondent Seller Guide has identified an opportunity to include specific AIR and PDCIR requirements.

Bulletin Details

In addition to the links for AIR and PDCIR requirements that are currently published in Truist's standards, the expanded requirements will be now be included.

- The Appraiser Independence Requirements (AIR) set forth standards to safeguard the independence, objectivity, and impartiality of appraisers and other Independent Parties throughout the valuation process for 1- to 4-unit residential properties.
- The Property Data Collector Independence Requirements (PDCIR) set forth standards to safeguard the independence, objectivity, and impartiality of property data collectors and other Independent Parties throughout the property data collection process.
