Temporary Protected Status Update for NPRA Borrowers

Truist Bank (Truist) is aligning with the recent U.S. Department of Homeland Security's announcements of the Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for Burma (Myanmar), Ethiopia and South Sudan being terminated.

Effective Dates

Effective for all applications as of December 19, 2025.

Background Information

On November 05, 2025, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security published a Federal Register notice terminating Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for South Sudan. On November 25, 2025, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security published a Federal Register notice terminating Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for Burma (Myanmar). On December 12, 2025, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security published a Federal Register notice terminating Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for Ethiopia.

Bulletin Details

The termination of a country's Temporary Protected Status under Employment Authorization Document (EAD) Category A12 impacts continuity of income requirements. To support continuity of income requirements, the Truist Protected Status (TPS) Eligibility list has been updated to remove Burma, Ethiopia and South Sudan. To determine eligibility, lenders will be required to check the Truist Temporary Protected Status list, which will specify which countries are currently eligible for Temporary Protected Status.
